The woman next to him is sitting on a concrete ledge in a light blue hoodie. The man next to her is sitting on the same ledge in a bright blue hoodie. Image Scotland

Welcome Back From Image Scotland

We hope that you enjoyed your Summer break, whatever you were up to. All the guys at Image Scotland are building up to another very busy academic year and don't worry – we haven't been relaxing all Summer long!

The great news is that our university and college service is bigger, better and more appealing than ever and we are delighted to introduce you to some of the positive changes to our service. Before we go on, don't worry... all the usual popular elements of our service like free delivery and no minimum order are still in place.

Here's what's new for 2022/23...

New and Extended Product Ranges

In addition to our fantastic range of club and society leisurewear, we are delighted to introduce Helly Hansen and Musto for the new academic year. We are very proud to partner both these fantastic outdoor clothing brands. Their whole range is available at a fantastic discount of 28% off standard retail prices for our university customers. In our 2022/23 brochure we feature a snapshot of their ranges which covers anything from technical mountaineering kit to high quality sailing and water sports clothing.

Online Order Facilities

To assist with the ordering process for clubs and societies we are delighted to introduce a selection of online ordering platforms that can be set up. These allow clubs to order in bulk online or individual members to order and pay independently. Our new systems provide a more flexible way for clubs and societies to order merch.

Outdoor Clothing & Equipment Repairs

If your club or society is outdoor based, on the water or on the hills, Image Scotland are well placed to help maintain your performance clothing and equipment through our repair and maintenance service. We offer full repair and washing facilities for most of the major outdoor brands and can repair a whole host of technical items including waterproof jackets, down products, sleeping bags, rucksacks and tents. Get in touch if you need a gear refresh!

Environmental Awareness

Image Scotland continues to be aware of the environmental and ethical demands placed on our industry by you, our customer. You want to be confident that your garments are sourced and produced using certified and accredited processes and 2022/23 sees us continue to work with brands that meet our required criteria. All brands that we choose to partner all have the necessary Oeko-Tex and WRAP certifications, giving you the confidence that your clothing is ethically produced. We have a complete section explaining our commitment to this important issue.

Image Scotland Website

To coincide with the start of the new academic year, we are going to be spending a lot of time updating our website. This will include the introduction of a lot of brand new products as well as a whole host of new features which will improve your online experience with Image Scotland even more. You can expect more interaction with our popular social media feeds so you can keep up to date with all the Image Scotland news as well as a dedicated section for university students.

We hope you enjoy our new brochure - 2022/23 is going to be a great year and remember to follow our Facebook page and Twitter feed for updates!

Environmental Ethics

Image Scotland take the issue of environmental ethics in the personalised clothing and apparel industry very seriously. That's why for 2022-23, we have gone out of our way to associate ourselves with our brand partners that adhere to the highest possible standards set by the industry.

These worldwide recognised accreditations ensure that stringent ethical standards must be met which gives you, our valued customers, confidence that practices such as child labour, unfair working conditions and environmental pollution are not used during the production of the garments advertised.

Throughout our 2022-23 University Brochure, you will see various symbols listed against many of the products listed. We thought it would be helpful to give you a background to each one.

WRAP (Worldwide Responsible Apparel Production)

WRAP is an independent, objective, non profit team of social compliance experts dedicated to promoting safe, lawful, humane and ethical manufacturing around the world. They use a process of certification and education and manufacturers that adopt WRAP all have to operate to a cohesive and comprehensive code which is independently policed. WRAP sets out a number of major principles ranging from prohibition of child and forced labour to drugs interdiction and customs compliance. It covers laws and workplace regulations including hours or work, discrimination and health & safety, as well standards and regulations in relation to the environment. You can find out more about WRAP by visiting www.wrapapparel.org

OEKO-TEX®

OEKO-TEX® is an internationally recognised testing standard which sets minimum acceptable levels for substances which might be harmful to humans or the environment that can be used during the garment production process. It deals with the four major areas of textile ecology –

1. Disposal Ecology – recovery, recycling, disposal.
2. Production Ecology – operational safety, water and energy consumption, formation of dust and excessive noise.
3. Performance Ecology – the effects of washing and dry cleaning on the environment.
4. Human Ecology – the effects of chemicals on health and well being.

You can find out more about OEKO-TEX® by visiting – www.oeko-tex.com

Outwith the accreditations detailed, some of our brands also comply with the Fair Wear Foundation and have their own code of ethical standards that they adhere to. These policies can be viewed on their individual websites.

We believe that no garment decorator in the UK takes their social and environmental responsibility more seriously than Image Scotland. That is why we are being open and honest with you, our valued customer, and providing as much information as we can on this increasingly important subject.
